If the Agreement satisfies the requirements of sections 90G and 90 MJ of the Family Law Act 1975 (copy attached) then it is binding on the Trustees from the 4th business day after receipt of the Agreement (the operative date). This does not mean that any benefits are payable immediately but that from the operative date the Trustees are prevented from dealing with the superannuation interest except in accordance with the Agreement. Within 28 days the parties will receive a notification split advice under the terms of the Family Law legislation.
